

F500 Dataset

The Dataset contains Fortune magazine's Global 500 list 2017. Which ranks the top 500 corporations worldwide by revenue. The dataset is a CSV file called f500.csv.

The dataset can be accessed using this link: Fortune 500 2017 - Fortune 500.csv

Here is a data dictionary for some of the columns in the CSV:

- company - The Name of the company.
- rank - The Global 500 rank for the company.
- revenues - The company's total revenues for the fiscal year, in millions of dollars (USD).
- revenue_change - The percentage change in revenue between the current and prior fiscal years.
- profits - Net income for the fiscal year, in millions of dollars (USD).
- ceo - The company's Chief Executive Officer.
- industry - The industry in which the company operates.
- sector - The sector in which the company operates.
- previous_rank - The Global 500 rank for the company for the prior year.
- country - The Country in which the company is headquartered.
- hq_location - The City and Country, (or City and State for the USA) where the company is headquartered.
- employees - Total employees (full-time equivalent, if available) at fiscal year-end.